

Health and Safety Policy

Aeroplicity is committed to setting health and safety as our top priority where we strive to develop, implement, and improve our strategies, systems, and processes to ensure that all of our activities uphold the highest level of health and safety and meet all applicable national and international standards. It is the responsibility of all of us to abide by the law and participate in a healthy and safe workplace.